

PRIVACY POLICY

Gadot Biochemical (JIANSU) Corp. ("Gadot") is the operator of this Website. This Privacy Policy describes the type of information Gadot collects from visitors to this website and what Gadot does with that information. This Privacy Policy applies to all pages of this website. This Privacy Policy will be continuously assessed against new technologies, business practices and customers' changing needs. Gadot may change its privacy practices from time to time. If Gadot makes any changes to its Privacy Policy, this privacy statement will be updated accordingly. Gadot does not undertake to notify the users of this website of any changes to this Privacy Policy.

What Type of Information Does Gadot Collect? When you visit the website, Gadot may ask you to provide contact information including your name, company name, address, telephone and facsimile numbers and e-mail address. If you use Gadot's services or otherwise make use of the website, we may ask you to provide additional information.

When you visit this website, Gadot also collects certain routing information such as the Internet Protocol address of your originating Internet Service Provider. This information allows Gadot to provide more tailored and user-friendly services.

Gadot collects aggregate information about the use of this website, such as which pages are most frequently visited, how many visitors the website receives daily, and how long visitors stay on each page. Some applications contained within this website may also collect information when particular documents are viewed, downloaded or uploaded.

To improve the usefulness of our site, Gadot tracks and analyzes non-identifying, aggregate usage, and volume statistical information from our visitors and customers to administer our Site, to constantly improve the quality of our service and site performance.

How Does Gadot Use The Information Collected? The information Gadot collects from and about you and your company may be used in, among others, the following ways: to fulfill requests, to provide information in response to requests, to process, execute and monitor orders, to notify you and third parties of the status of requests, to prepare drawings, product configurations or productions, to provide you with information about services Gadot believes you will find useful, or to notify you of updated information, changes to the website, or new products and services that Gadot thinks might be beneficial to you or your business. Gadot also may combine information you have provided in prior communications offline with the information you have given online, to provide a more customized experience for visits to this website.

Gadot uses demographic and website usage information collected from visitors for the purpose of, among others, improving the usefulness of this website and preparing aggregate, non-identifying, information used in marketing, advertising, or similar activities. From time to time, some information may be purged from Gadot's systems at Gadot's sole discretion.

If you send us an e-mail, be aware that your return address will be displayed in the header we receive. We will use this information to answer your inquiry and we may keep your message as a record of our contacts.

With Whom Does Gadot Share Information? Gadot may share the information collected about you and your company, including your e-mail address or other identifying information, to affiliates and to third parties to provide the services that have been requested. Gadot may provide aggregate statistics about visitors, website transactions or other website activity.

Gadot may disclose information about you or your company if it has a good faith belief that it is required to do so by law or legal process, to respond to claims, or to protect the rights, property or safety of Gadot or others. Gadot does not sell the information you provide to third parties for marketing purposes.

Other companies that advertise or link to this website may use cookies or collect other information about you when you go to their websites. Gadot does not control the collection or use of information by these companies. You should contact these companies directly if you have any questions about their collection or use of information about you.

How is Your Information Protected? Your transmission of technical or financial information to us through this website is secured through encryption, including digital certificates. Likewise, all requests and data submitted through this website and account status information accessible through the website, are secured through encryption. If you send us information or data via e-mail, the information is not secured through encryption unless Gadot specifically advises you otherwise.

While we strive to protect your personal or company information by encryption and other means, we cannot guarantee or warrant the security of the information you transmit to us, and if you choose to use our website, you do so at your own risk.

Special Provisions for Our European Users. If you are an individual resident in a Member State of the European Union, you acknowledge and agree that we may collect, use and disclose your personal data as described in this Privacy Policy, or any amendments hereto. You further acknowledge and agree that we may transfer your personal data outside of the European Union for purposes described in this Privacy Policy. If you do not consent to the terms of this Privacy Policy, please do not use this Site.
